

Farm Animals: Fact or Fiction?

- | | | |
|---|------|-------|
| 1. Pigs love mud because it is messy. | true | false |
| 2. Cows would rather live alone than in a herd. | true | false |
| 3. A chicken can recognize one hundred other chickens. | true | false |
| 4. Some cows make more milk when they hear Elvis music. | true | false |
| 5. Pigs may be smarter than dogs. | true | false |
| 6. Cows often babysit one another's calves. | true | false |
| 7. Pigs prefer to stay put instead of walking around. | true | false |
| 8. Chickens chew their food carefully. | true | false |

To check your answers, count the words in each statement. A sentence with an odd number of words is false. A sentence with an even number is true.

Visit your library to learn about other farm animals, such as turkeys, goats, sheep, horses, and ducks. Then write your own true-or-false statements on the back. Test your classmates' or family's knowledge!