

Name _____

Pet of the Month: Rabbits

Rabbits come in different sizes and colors.

The more time you spend with a rabbit, the friendlier it will be.

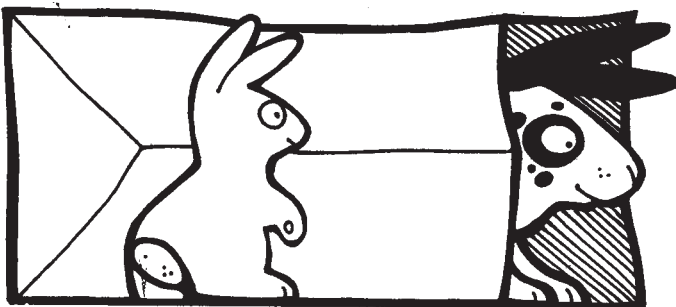

Usually, rabbits can be housebroken. They make great indoor pets.

All rabbits need to run and play. Keep your rabbit safe when it plays in the house.

Most rabbits live five to eight years.

Help! These sentences about rabbits do not make sense. To fix them, cross out the third, sixth, and ninth words in each one. Then read each sentence.

1. Many rabbits soft enjoy being furry brushed or happy combed.
2. Sometimes the rabbits' carrot toe-nails need lettuce to be banana clipped.
3. Always use feet two hands elbows when lifting knees a rabbit.
4. A rabbit cage should always door have clean roof water.
5. Rabbits eat watermelon pellets made yesterday from hay seeds.
6. Carrots, apples, shoes, and bananas crumbs are treats birthday for rabbits.
7. A rabbit jumping should have sunglasses a piece missing of hard wood to chew on.
8. A tin roof can makes crash a nice bang noisy toy for a rabbit.
9. Rabbits need fast to run dance and play checkers in a safe place each day.
10. A spayed black or neutered brown rabbit is spotted a happier, healthier pet.

Wild rabbits do not make good pets. They are afraid of people. Sometimes they carry diseases, and they may bite. If you find a baby wild rabbit, leave it alone. Do not keep it as a pet!