Train Your Eyes on Well-Trained Dogs

Each year, animal shelters take in millions of dogs that people don't want. Why do so many people give up their pets? One of the main reasons is behavior problems.

If dogs are properly trained, most of their behavior problems can be prevented or solved. Training helps dogs become calm and friendly.

Which dogs below are trained? Write a T in those boxes. Which dogs are untrained? Write a U in those boxes.

Jasper is excited to see people. He jumps on them.

Weezer sits and happily wags his tail when someone comes over.

When she's left alone, Petunia rips curtains and scratches furniture.

Buttercup likes playing with her family. When she's alone, she relaxes and plays with her toys.

Mombo loves going for walks.

Fido barks and pulls when he sees strangers.

Pretend you are a dog trainer. Remember, good training takes kindness and patience. On the back, draw your dog training school. Give your school a name!
